DIRECTOR'S LETTER

Hello friends,

Welcome to Deaf Night at Principal Park, home of the Iowa Cubs! We are pleased to have you celebrate our third annual Iowa Baseball Camp for the Deaf (IBCD), a half-day, week-long baseball camp for deaf and hard of hearing children from the Midwest, ages 7-14, sponsored by Sertoma Club of Des Moines, the Iowa Cubs, and various supporters from all over North America.

This camp has been a massive success so far. During our first year, we had 21 campers. Last year, we had 26 campers. And this year, we have 29 campers! The camp is constantly growing and expanding with more sponsors and volunteers.

The impact of the camp is widespread and we are ecstatic that you get to share tonight as we watch our campers sign the National Anthem on the field prior to the game; also, be sure to catch their performance of Take Me Out to the Ballgame during the seventh-inning stretch.

As you enjoy this display, please bear in mind that not all children experience the "crack of the bat" as some do. Mainstream sports sometime do not accommodate the specific needs of a child who is deaf or hard of hearing. At IBCD, each camper is assured a safe, learning environment and will be taught the fundamentals of baseball through demonstration and sign language interpreting. IBCD arranges for professional coaching and provides full uniforms for a complete camp experience. Tonight's I-Cubs game is the camp week highlight for many campers and their families.

For the third year in row, our camp is being held at Johnston Little League Park and we thank them for their generous gift for the use of the park. Professional coaches, Iowa Cubs players (including John Andreoli and Rob Zastryzny), collegiate players, interpreters, and community volunteers work together to give us the support needed to allow the camp run effectively.

Please join us in thanking the volunteers who have given their time and expertise to provide our campers with a solid knowledge of baseball skills, etiquette and inspiring love of the game! This winning combination provides the campers with exemplary role models.
